UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA INVITATIONAL MEET SLATED ON DORNBLASER FIELD

MISSOULA---

The University of Montana track team will host three other Montana colleges in a four-way invitational meet at Dornblaser Field Saturday afternoon. The meet will feature the appearance of former Grizzly All-America distance ace Doug Brown of Red Lodge, who will run unattached in the three-mile event.

The other schools entering teams are Northern Montana College of Havre, Western Montana College of Dillon, and Dawson Junior College of Glendive.

The javelin and pole vault events will begin at 1:15 and the shot put and long jump will start at 1:30. Running events, many of them in heats, will begin at 2 p.m.

Grizzly coach Harley Lewis plans to let some of his team members who ordinarily don't qualify for major meet competition vie in the Saturday invitational. He will also give some of his regulars a chance to try different events than they usually compete in.

The events, and Grizzlies entered, are as follows:

220-yard dash---Jones, Gopp, Zins and Randy Hahn, Great Falls freshman.
